

Here Today... For Wildlife Tomorrow

The Foundation for the Conservation of Arizona's Wildlife was created in 1990 to enhance the management, protection and enjoyment of Arizona's fish and wildlife resources. Today, the organization does business under the name Wildlife for Tomorrow. Wildlife for Tomorrow is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization that solely exists to accelerate and magnify the impact of Arizona Game and Fish Department's mission to conserve and protect Arizona's wildlife and provide safe, ethical outdoor recreation.

As the official philanthropic partner of the Arizona Game and Fish Department, Wildlife for Tomorrow provides a way for people who are passionate about the outdoors and wildlife conservation to give back to the places that have given so much joy.

The funds raised by Wildlife for Tomorrow fund conservation projects that fall into the four core areas:

- 1) Connecting People to the Outdoors
- 2) Connecting People to Wildlife through Education
- 3) Conserving Wildlife Resources
- 4) Stewardship & Community

The 26th Annual Arizona Outdoor Hall of Fame

In 1998, Wildlife for Tomorrow and the Arizona Game and Fish Department joined forces to establish the Arizona Outdoor Hall of Fame. This prestigious award honors individuals and organizations that have made remarkable and enduring contributions towards the conservation of Arizona's wildlife, the preservation of its natural resources, and the promotion of the state's outdoor heritage.

Past Outdoor Hall of Fame inductees have been individuals with backgrounds in wildlife volunteerism, corporate leadership, politics, wildlife and the media, including Ben Avery, Barry Goldwater, Morris Udall, John McCain, Bill Quimby, Tom Woods and Steve Hirsch, as well as groups and organizations such as Adobe Mountain Wildlife Center Volunteers, Arizona Antelope Foundation, Rio Salado Sportsman's Club, Arizona Deer Association, National Wild Turkey Federation, Audubon Arizona, Arizona Public Service, Salt River Project and many other men, women and organizations that have served selflessly for the success of conservation of Arizona's precious wildlife resources.

Join us on August 24, 2024 for the 26th Annual Outdoor Hall of Fame Induction Banquet to celebrate the accomplishments of this year's Inductees. The Induction Banquet will be held at the Wigwam Resort. The evening will include a social hour, fundraiser, dinner and awards ceremony.
